

ANSER-ARES

ANSER Graduate Student Research Award

1. Purpose:
The purpose of the ANSER award is to foster and acknowledge graduate research excellence in the field of nonprofits and the social economy in Canada
2. Timetable
 - a. Formal call for nominations: September
 - b. Receipt of nominations: November
 - c. Review and award announcement: January
 - d. Presentation and research profile by recipients: ANSER Conference
3. Eligibility:
 - a. Any full-time Landed Immigrant or Canadian graduate student who is focusing on nonprofit and social economy research
 - b. Applications may be submitted in French or English
4. Selection criteria:
 - a. Research scholarship
 - b. Quality of research
 - c. Relevance to nonprofits and the social economy
 - d. Contribution to policy, governance, or sustainability of nonprofits and the social economy
5. Application process:
 - a. Submission of the following by the deadline date:
 - i. A two page outline of the research question/ methodology/ research partners/ expected contribution/ relationship to nonprofits and the social economy/ research timetable
 - ii. A CV (4 pages maximum) to include stage of study/ expected completion date/ bursaries or funding/ publications/ research experience
 - iii. Letter of support from supervisor or other to comment on quality of research scholarship and relevance to nonprofit and social economy
 - iv. Transcript of graduate grades to date
6. Award:
 - a. There will be two annual awards of $2,500 each with an additional $2,500 (total) to support Award recipient travel to the ANSER Conference. Award recipients will be asked to profile their research at the ANSER Conference.

For more information contact:

Peter R. Elson
ANSER Awards Committee
c/o Institute for Nonprofit Studies
Mount Royal
4825 Mount Royal Gate SW,
Calgary, AB T3E 6K6
(403) 440-8722
pelson@mtroyal.ca

Funds for the ANSER Graduate Student Award have been made possible by the Institute for Nonprofit Studies, Mount Royal.